Tony’s Creepy Crawly Zoo 2.0

We're looking for reptile, invertebrate, and nature influencers.

Use your social media influence. Earn $$.

Your followers love animals. Give them an adventure they can step inside! Become about two inches tall and explore the habitats of giant real animals, from tarantulas to honey bees. Bring them along through Tony’s Creepy Crawly Zoo 2.0, available on the Meta Horizon Store for Quest.

Share your passion for animals

We’re looking for reptile, invertebrate, and nature influencers who can demonstrate the VR app to their followers. Bring your personality and enthusiasm. You need access to a compatible Meta Quest headset and the ability to share footage.

Your partner offer

Receive complimentary full access, your unique discount code giving followers 10% off, a store link, and promotional materials. The app costs $14.99. Your commission is $1 for each qualifying paid purchase using your code across your social platforms.

We would also love your insight

We’d also love your help making the experience even better. Gather your followers’ comments, questions, and suggestions and send them to us, along with your own observations. Your knowledge of animals and your followers can help guide future improvements.

Simple partner terms

Refunded purchases do not qualify. Payouts and a sales summary are provided monthly; we agree on the payment method before activation. We request permission separately before reusing your content.
